

Most Likely To Succeed

Film screening and conversation with Ted Dintersmith

Most Likely To Succeed is a thought-provoking documentary feature film that reveals the growing shortcomings of conventional education methods in today's innovative world. Premiered at Sundance in 2015, the film explores compelling new approaches that aim to revolutionize education as we know it, inspiring school communities to reimagine what students and teachers are capable of doing. The film was produced by Ted Dintersmith, a Partner Emeritus with Charles River Ventures, a leading early-stage venture capital firm, and author of the new book What School Could Be (2018 Princeton University Press). He was ranked by Business 2.0 as the top-performing venture capitalist in the U.S. for the years 1995-1999. In 2012, he was appointed by President Obama to represent the U.S. at the United Nations General Assembly, where he focused on education.

DATE

Saturday, June 9, 2018

* Doors will open at 13:30

VENUE

B104, Bldg. 26, Waseda Campus, Waseda University

PROGRAM

* Please register your participation!
<https://mltsatwaseda.peatix.com/>

- 14:00 - 14:10 Introduction:
Will Brehm | Assistant Professor, Waseda Institute for Advanced Study (WIAS), Waseda Univ.
- 14:10 - 14:25 Opening Remarks:
Kazuo Kuroda | Dean, International Affairs Division/Professor, Grad. Sch. of Asia Pacific Studies, Waseda Univ.
- 14:30 - 16:00 Film Screening: Most Likely to Succeed (with Japanese subtitles)
- 16:00 - 16:10 Discussants:
James Williams | Professor, George Washington University/Visiting Researcher, WIAS, Waseda Univ.
Aya Yoshida | Professor, Sch. of Education, Waseda Univ.
- 16:10 - 16:30 Q&A: Ted Dintersmith | film producer and author

Waseda Institute for Advanced Study
早稲田大学 高等研究所

TEL 03-5286-2460
Email wias-info@list.waseda.jp