

A seminar for coming "International Leading Research"

Saturday, April 22, 2023

Building #3, Room#909, Waseda Campus, Waseda University

13:40-13:45 Opening Remark

-Professor Toyomi Asano, Waseda University

13:45-14:10 Keynote Speech

-Professor Karina Korostelina, George Mason University

"Reconciliation studies through Nationalism study and Conflict resolution studies"

14:20-14:45 Comments

-Professor Naoyuki Umemori, Waseda University

14:45-15:00 Free discussions with young researchers

15:00-15:15 Break

15:15 Presentation of young researchers and Comments from Prof. Karina Korostelina and other professors in the project:

•Kageyama Yuka(影山優華) "Feminist Contribution to Peace and Security: Feminist Peace Movement and Research"

•Aikata Miki(相方未来) "Recovery from and Reconciliation with The Experience of Sexual Violence: Integrating Feminist Therapy's Concepts into Global Peace and Security"

•Chen Chih-Kang(陳志剛) "My research on modern Taiwan and Okinawa and my interest in "reconciliation studies"

•Kawaguchi Hiroko(川口博子) "Reconciliation in Everyday Lives of Former Soldiers: A Case Study of the Acholi of Northern Uganda"

•Tanaka Satoshi(田中聡) "The Political Economy of Ethnic Politics in Bosnia and Herzegovina"

16:30-18:00 Roundtable Discussion with young researchers