

◆Open Lecture◆

Un/bounding the Great Wall: Sino-Japanese Documentary Media connections in the Long 1980s

Date

January 20th (Monday) 16:00 ~ 18:00

Speaker

Ma Ran (Associate Professor, Graduate School of Humanities, Nagoya University)

Venue

Room 10, 16th Floor, Building 33 Toyama Campus

Language

English

Registration

Pre-registration is required

✕Registration will close once capacity is reached.

📌Registration link / QR cord

<https://form.run/@tyama--0xrGVucUssmrLZNLsxRf>

Profile

Ma Ran is an Associate Professor in “Japan-in-Asia” Cultural Studies and Screen Studies at Nagoya University, Japan. Her research interests revolve around the intersection of Inter-Asia studies, transnational film and screen cultures, and film festival studies, for which she has published book chapters and journal articles. Her current project focuses on the dynamics of translocality, infrastructure, and affect within the context of transnational media across East Asian locales. Ma is also the author of Independent Filmmaking across Borders in Contemporary Asia (Amsterdam University Press, 2019).

Program

16:00-16:10 Opening Remarks

16:10-17:10 Lecture

17:10-17:55 Q&A

17:55-18:00 Closing Remarks

* Moderator: Tomoyasu Iiyama (Professor, Faculty of Letters, Arts and Sciences, Waseda University)