

LIBRARY WORKSHOPS

Oct. 29th (Mon.) – Nov. 16th (Fri.), 2018

How to apply: From the application form on the library website. You can join workshops without reservation if space permits. Participation is free.
← Please check library website.

Library staff will provide some tips to help you search for information you need.

We are looking forward to meeting you at the workshops. Come and join us!

- 【Intended for】
- Students who do not know how to use library resources
 - Students who are not confident about preparing papers

Waseda University Library

Library Workshops Fall 2018 Schedule

SE Get along with LIBRARY! (English Program)

Searching

【Intended for】 Students who do not know how to use the library resources

【DBs to be introduced】 WINE, CiNii books, Web of Science, ProQuest Newspapers, etc.

In this workshop, the participants will learn how to use library resources, such as books and journal articles. Make the most of the library's resources and improve your research skills!

*The content of this workshop is almost the same as the library guidance in classes. (EDESSA Fresh-start seminar, etc)

★Schedule

10/31 (WED) 14:45-16:00
11/16 (FRI) 16:30-17:45

*The contents of each class are the same. Please participate in a convenient class for you.

★Location

@Group Study Room 2,
2nd Floor, Central Library

WE

*Writing
In English*

Writing Workshop

Outlining your arguments using TOEFL/IELTS writing tasks

【Intended for】 Undergraduate and graduate students
【DBs to be introduced】 WINE, WINE Plus, e-journal e-book list etc.

Learn how to outline your arguments in a convincing and clear manner for academic essays using the TOEFL/IELTS writing tasks.

* This program is collaborative workshop provided by Writing Center and Library.

★Schedule

11/14 (WED) 9:30-12:10

★Location

@Group Study Room 2,
2nd Floor, Central Library

RE RefWorks, a citation management tool (English Program)

Refworks

【Intended for】 Students and faculty members who want to manage bibliographic information

【DBs to be introduced】 RefWorks

RefWorks is a web-based bibliography manager, useful for writing a paper. It allows you to manage and store bibliographic information and make bibliographies in various formats. Let's learn the basics of RefWorks from a ProQuest's instructor!

★Schedule

11/7 (WED) 14:45-16:00

★Location

@Room 409, 4th Floor, Building #8
※You don't need to bring your laptop.

* In addition to face-to-face lectures, you can take online lecture of SE programs.

Please scan the right QR code to access the website when you can't participate in hands-on session.

